1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the Chair of the meeting or by virtue of a resolution moved according to SO 10 (a)(vi).
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the Chair of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the Chair of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the Chair.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chair of the meeting.
- j Subject to Standing Order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chair of the meeting.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chair of the meeting considers this expedient, but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on the amendment.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- o Unless permitted by the Chair of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in

- o the debate on a motion except:
 - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor
 - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke
 - iii. to make a point of order
 - iv. to give a personal explanation
 - v. to exercise a right of reply
- p During the debate on a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the Standing Order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting that gives him cause for concern.
- q A point of order shall be decided by the Chair of the meeting and his decision shall be final.
- r When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. to amend the motion
 - ii. to proceed to the next business
 - iii. to adjourn the debate
 - iv. to put the motion to a vote
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting
 - vi. to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration
 - vii. to exclude the public and press
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting
 - ix. to suspend particular Standing Order(s) with the exception of those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.
- s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the Chair of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.
- t Excluding motions moved under Standing Order 1(r), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 3 minutes without the consent of the Chair of the meeting.

2. DISORDERLY CONDUCT AT MEETINGS

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this Standing Order is ignored, the Chair of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b If a person or persons disregard(s) the request of the Chair of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the Chair of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under Standing Order 2(b) is ignored, the Chair of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3. MEETINGS GENERALLY

Full Council meetings	●
Committee meetings	●
Sub-committee meetings	●

- a Meetings shall not take place in premises which at the time of the meeting are used for the supply of alcohol, unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.
- b The minimum three clear days for notice of a meeting does not include the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.
- c The minimum three clear days' public notice for a meeting does not include the day on which the notice was issued or the day of the meeting.
- d Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons stated in the resolution and arising from the nature of that business or of the proceedings.¹
- e Members of the public may make representations, answer questions and give evidence at a meeting which they are entitled to attend in respect of the business on the agenda.
- f The period of time designated for public participation at a meeting in accordance with Standing Order 3(e) shall not exceed 15 minutes unless directed by the Chair of the meeting.

- g Subject to Standing Order 3(f), a member of the public shall not speak for more than 3 minutes.
- h In accordance with Standing Order 3(e), a question shall not require a response at the meeting nor start a debate on the question. The Chair of the meeting may direct that a written or oral response be given at the meeting or at a later date.
- i A person shall raise his hand when requesting to speak.
- j A person who speaks at a meeting shall direct his comments to the Chair of the meeting.
- k Only one person is permitted to speak at a time. If more than one person wishes to speak, the Chair of the meeting shall direct the order of speaking.
- l Subject to Standing Order 3(m), a person who attends a meeting is permitted to report on the meeting whilst the meeting is open to the public. To “report” means to film, photograph, make an audio recording of meeting proceedings, use any other means for enabling persons not present to see or hear the meeting as it takes place or later or to report or to provide oral or written commentary about the meeting so that the report or commentary is available as the meeting takes place or later to persons not present.
- m A person present at a meeting may not provide an oral report or oral commentary about a meeting as it takes place without permission.
- n The press shall be provided with reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
- o Subject to Standing Orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chair may in his absence be done by, to or before the Vice-Chair.
- p The Chair, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the Chair is absent from a meeting, the Vice-Chair, if present, shall preside. If both the Chair and Vice-Chair are absent from a meeting, a councillor with voting rights as chosen by the councillors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting.
- q Subject to a meeting being quorate, all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the councillors and non-councillors with voting rights present and voting.
- r The Chair of a meeting may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may exercise his casting vote whether or not he gave an original vote.

See Standing Orders 5(h) and (i) for the different rules that apply in the election of the Chair at the Annual Meeting of the council.

- s Unless Standing Orders provide otherwise, voting on a question shall be by a show of hands. At the request of a councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before the matter is put to the vote.
- t The minutes of a meeting shall include an accurate record of the following:
 - i. the time and place of the meeting
 - ii. the names of councillors who are present and the names of councillors who are absent
 - iii. interests that have been declared by councillors and non-councillors with voting rights
 - iv. the grant of dispensations (if any) to councillors and non-councillors with voting rights
 - v. whether a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights left the meeting when matters in which they held interests were being considered
 - vi. if there was a public participation session
 - vii. the resolutions made
- u A councillor or a non-councillor with voting rights who has a disclosable pecuniary interest or another interest as set out in the council's Code of Conduct in a matter being considered at a meeting is subject to statutory limitations or restrictions under the Code on his right to participate and vote on that matter.
- v No business may be transacted at a meeting unless at least one-third of the whole number of members of the council² are present and in no case shall the quorum of a meeting be less than three.

See Standing Order 4d(viii) for the quora of a committee and sub-committee meetings.

² The whole number of members of the council is defined as the total number of seats: Newhaven Local Board v Newhaven School Board (1885).

- w If a meeting is or becomes inquorate, no business shall be transacted and the meeting shall be closed. The business on the agenda for the meeting shall be adjourned to another meeting.
- x A meeting shall not exceed a period of 2 hours.

4. COMMITTEES AND SUB-COMMITTEES

- a Unless the council determines otherwise, a committee may appoint a sub-committee the terms of reference and membership of which shall be determined by the committee.
- b The members of a committee may include non-councillors unless it is a committee which regulates and controls the finances of the council.
- c Unless the council determines otherwise, all the members of an advisory committee and a sub-committee of the advisory committee may be non-councillors.
- d The council may appoint standing committees or other committees as may be necessary, and:
 - i. shall determine their terms of reference
 - ii. shall determine the number and time of the ordinary meetings of a standing committee up until the date of the next Annual Meeting of the council
 - iii. shall permit a committee, other than in respect of the ordinary meetings of a committee, to determine the number and time of its meetings
 - iv. shall, subject to Standing Orders 4(b) and (c), appoint and determine the terms of office of members of such a committee
 - v. may, subject to Standing Orders 4(b) and (c), appoint and determine the terms of office of the substitute members to a committee whose role is to replace the ordinary members at a meeting of a committee if the ordinary members of the committee confirm to the Proper Officer 3 days before the meeting that they are unable to attend
 - vi. shall appoint the members of a committee
 - vii. shall permit a committee to appoint its own Chair at the first meeting of the committee following the Annual Meeting of the council in May.
 - If the Chair of the committee is present at the first meeting, he or she must chair the part of the meeting where the next Chair is elected. He or she has an original vote and a casting vote.

- If the Chair of the committee is not present at the first meeting (either absent or, in an election year he or she is no longer a councillor), the Vice-Chair will take the chair and has an original vote and a casting vote.
 - viii. shall determine the place, notice requirements and quorum for a meeting of a committee and a sub-committee which, in both cases, shall be one-third of its members but no less than three;
 - ix. shall determine if the public may participate at a meeting of a committee;
 - x. shall determine if the public and press are permitted to attend the meetings of a sub-committee and also the advance public notice requirements, if any, required for the meetings of a sub-committee;
 - xi. shall determine if the public may participate at a meeting of a sub-committee that they are permitted to attend;
 - xii. may dissolve a committee or a sub-committee.
- e. The election of the Chair and Vice Chair shall be the first business completed at the first meeting of the committee after the Annual Meeting of the council.
- f. The Chair and Vice-Chair, ex-officio, shall be voting members of every standing committee.

5. ORDINARY COUNCIL MEETINGS

- a In an election year, the Annual Meeting of the council shall be held on or within 14 days following the day on which the councillors elected take office.
- b In a year which is not an election year, the Annual Meeting of the council shall be held on such day in May as the council decides.
- c If no other time is fixed, the Annual Meeting of the council shall take place at 6pm.
- d In addition to the Annual Meeting of the council, at least three other ordinary meetings shall be held in each year on such dates and times as the council decides.
- e The first business conducted at the Annual Meeting of the council shall be the election of the Chair and the Vice-Chair of the council.
- f The Chair, unless he has resigned or becomes disqualified, shall continue in office and preside at the Annual Meeting until his successor is elected at the next Annual Meeting of the council.

- g The Vice-Chair of the council, if there is one, unless he resigns or becomes disqualified, shall hold office until immediately after the election of the Chair at the next annual meeting of the council.
- h In an election year, if the retiring Chair has not been re-elected as a member of the council, he shall preside at the Annual Meeting until a successor Chair has been elected. The retiring Chair shall not have an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chair of the council but shall give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- i In an election year, if the retiring Chair has been re-elected as a member of the council, he shall preside at the Annual Meeting until a new Chair has been elected. He may exercise an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chair and shall give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- j Following the election of the Chair and the Vice-Chair of the council at the Annual Meeting, the business shall include:
 - i. In an election year, delivery by the Chair and councillors of their acceptance of office forms unless the council resolves for this to be done at a later date. In a year which is not an election year, delivery by the Chair of his acceptance of office form unless the council resolves for this to be done at a later date
 - ii. Confirmation of the accuracy of the minutes of the last meeting of the council
 - iii. Receipt of the minutes of the last meeting of a committee
 - iv. Consideration of the recommendations made by a committee
 - v. Review of the terms of reference for committees
 - vi. Appointment of members to existing committees
 - vii. Appointment of any new committees in accordance with Standing Order 4
 - viii. Review and adoption of appropriate Standing Orders and Financial Regulations
 - ix. Review of arrangements (including legal agreements) with other local authorities, not-for-profit bodies and businesses
 - x. Review of representation on or work with external bodies and arrangements for providing relevant reports to the council
 - xi. In an election year, to make arrangements with a view to the council becoming eligible to exercise the general power of competence in the future

Business during ordinary meetings of the council during the year may include:

- xii. Review of delegation arrangements to committees, sub-committees, officers and other local authorities
- xiii. Review of inventory of land and other assets including buildings and office equipment
- xiv. Confirmation of arrangements for insurance cover in respect of all insurable risks
- xv. Review of subscriptions to other bodies on the part of the council or by the council on behalf of council employees
- xvi. Review of the council's Complaints procedure
- xvii. Review of the council's policies, procedures and practices in respect of its obligations under Freedom of Information and Data Protection legislation (see also Standing Orders 11, 19 and 20)
- xviii. Review of the council's mediapolicy
- xix. Review of the council's employment policies and procedures
- xx. Review of the council's expenditure incurred under s.137 of the Local Government Act 1972 or the general power of competence
- xxi. Determining the time and place of ordinary meetings of the council up to and including the next annual meeting of the council.

6. EXTRAORDINARY MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL, COMMITTEES AND SUB-COMMITTEES

- a The Chair may convene an extraordinary meeting of the council at any time.³
- b If the Chair does not call an extraordinary meeting of the council within seven days of having been requested in writing to do so by two councillors, any two councillors may convene an extraordinary meeting of the council. The public notice giving the time, place and agenda for such a meeting shall be signed by the two councillors. The convening councillors need not be identical with the requesting councillors.
- c The Chair of a committee or a sub-committee may convene an extraordinary meeting of the committee or the sub-committee at any time.
- d If the Chair of a committee or a sub-committee does not call an extraordinary meeting within 7 days of having been requested to do so by 2 members of the committee or the sub-committee, any 2 members of the committee or the sub-committee may convene an extraordinary meeting of the committee or a sub-committee. The convening members need not be identical with the requesting members.

³ Refer to Standing Order 3

7. PREVIOUS RESOLUTIONS

- a A resolution shall not be reversed within six months except either by a special motion, which requires written notice by at least 9 councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with Standing Order 9, or by a motion moved in pursuance of the recommendation of a committee or a sub-committee.
- b When a motion moved pursuant to Standing Order 7(a) has been disposed of, no similar motion may be moved for a further six months.

8. VOTING ON APPOINTMENTS

- a Where more than two persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the council and none of those persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. A tie in votes may be settled by the casting vote exercisable by the Chair of the meeting. Voting on appointments may be by signed ballot.

See the council's Co-Option procedure for more details.

9. MOTIONS FOR A MEETING THAT REQUIRE WRITTEN NOTICE TO BE GIVEN TO THE PROPER OFFICER

- a A motion shall relate to the responsibilities of the meeting for which it is tabled and, in any event, shall relate to the performance of the council's statutory functions, powers and obligations or an issue which specifically affects the council's area or its residents.
- b No motion may be moved at a meeting unless it is on the agenda and the mover has given written notice of its wording to the Proper Officer at least 7 clear days before the meeting excluding those items specified under Standing Order 10(a)(ix). Clear days do not include the day of the notice, the day of the meeting, a bank holiday or a Sunday.
- c The Proper Officer may, before including a motion on the agenda received in accordance with Standing Order 9(b), correct obvious grammatical or typographical errors in the wording of the motion.
- d If the Proper Officer considers the wording of a motion received in accordance with Standing Order 9(b) to be unclear in meaning, the motion shall be rejected until the mover of the motion resubmits it, so that it can be understood, in writing, to the Proper Officer at least 5 clear days before the meeting.
- e If the wording or subject of a proposed motion is considered improper or irrational, the Proper Officer shall consult with the Chair of the forthcoming meeting or, as the case may be, the councillors who have convened the meeting, to consider whether the motion shall be included in the agenda or rejected.

- f The decision of the Proper Officer as to whether or not to include the motion on the agenda shall be final.
- g Motions received shall be recorded and numbered in the order that they are received.
- h Motions rejected shall be recorded with an explanation by the Proper Officer of the reason for rejection.

10. MOTIONS AT A MEETING THAT DO NOT REQUIRE WRITTEN NOTICE

- a The following motions may be moved at a meeting without written notice to the Proper Officer:
 - i. to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes of a meeting
 - ii. to move to a vote
 - iii. to defer consideration of a motion
 - iv. to refer a motion to a particular committee or sub-committee
 - v. to appoint a person to preside at a meeting
 - vi. to change the order of business on the agenda
 - vii. to proceed to the next business on the agenda
 - viii. to require a written report
 - ix. to appoint a committee or sub-committee and its members
 - x. to extend the time limits for speaking
 - xi. to exclude the press and public from a meeting in respect of confidential or other information which is prejudicial to the public interest
 - xii. to not hear further from a councillor or a member of the public
 - xiii. to exclude a councillor or member of the public for disorderly conduct
 - xiv. to temporarily suspend the meeting
 - xv. to suspend a particular Standing Order (unless it reflects mandatory statutory or legal requirements)
 - xvi. to adjourn the meeting
 - xvii. to close the meeting.

11. MANAGEMENT OF INFORMATION

See also Standing Order 20.

- a The council shall have in place, and keep under review, technical and organisational measures to keep secure information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. Such arrangements shall include deciding who has access to personal data and encryption of personal data.
- b The council shall have in place, and keep under review, policies for the retention and safe destruction of all information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. The council's Retention policy shall confirm the period for which information (including personal data) shall be retained or, if this is not possible, the criteria used to determine that period (for example, the Limitation Act 1980).
- c The agenda, papers that support the agenda and the minutes of a meeting shall not disclose or otherwise undermine confidential information or personal data without legal justification.
- d Councillors, employees, the council's contractors and agents shall not disclose confidential information or personal data without legal justification.

12. DRAFT MINUTES

Full Council meetings	●
Committee meetings	●
Sub-committee meetings	●

- a The draft minutes of a preceding meeting will be served on councillors with the agenda to attend the meeting at which they are due to be approved for accuracy, and these draft minutes shall be taken as read.
- b There shall be no discussion about the draft minutes of a preceding meeting except in relation to their accuracy and the review and closure of any outstanding actions. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes shall be moved in accordance with Standing Order 10(a)(i).
- c The accuracy of draft minutes, including any amendment(s) made to them, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the Chair of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
- d If the Chair of the meeting does not consider the minutes to be an accurate record of the meeting to which they relate, he shall sign the minutes and include a paragraph in the following terms or to the same effect:

“The Chair of this meeting does not believe that the minutes of the meeting of the () held on [date] in respect of () were a correct record but his view was not upheld by the meeting and the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the proceedings.”

- e If the council's gross annual income or expenditure (whichever is
- higher) does not exceed £25,000, it shall publish draft minutes on a
- website which is publicly accessible and free of charge not later than one month after the meeting has taken place.
- f Subject to the publication of draft minutes in accordance with Standing Order 12(e) and Standing Order 19(a) and following a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of a meeting, the draft minutes or recordings of the meeting for which approved minutes exist shall be destroyed.

13. CODE OF CONDUCT AND DISPENSATIONS

See also Standing Order 3(u).

- a All councillors and non-councillors with voting rights shall observe the Code of Conduct adopted by the council.
- b Unless he has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he has a disclosable pecuniary interest. He may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he had the interest.
- c Unless he has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he has another interest if so required by the council's Code of Conduct. He may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he had the interest.
- d Dispensation requests shall be submitted in writing to the Proper Officer as soon as possible before the meeting.
- e The Proper Officer will forward the request to the Monitoring Officer at Uttlesford District Council pursuant to Section 101 of the Local Government Act 1972. A decision as to whether to grant a dispensation shall be made by the Monitoring Officer at Uttlesford District Council and that decision is final.
- f A dispensation request shall confirm:
 - i. the description and the nature of the disclosable pecuniary interest or other interest to which the request for the dispensation relates
 - ii. whether the dispensation is required to participate at a meeting in a discussion only or a discussion and a vote

- iii. the date of the meeting or the period (not exceeding four years) for which the dispensation is sought
 - iv. an explanation as to why the dispensation is sought.
- g. Subject to Standing Orders 13(d) and (f), a dispensation request shall be considered by the Proper Officer before the meeting or, if this is not possible, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required.
- h. A dispensation may be granted in accordance with Standing Order 13(e) if, having regard to all relevant circumstances, any of the following apply:
 - a. without the dispensation the number of persons prohibited from participating in the particular business would be so great a proportion of the meeting transacting the business as to impede the transaction of the business
 - b. granting the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the council's area
 - c. it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.

14. CODE OF CONDUCT COMPLAINTS

- a. Upon notification by the Principal Council that a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights has breached the council's Code of Conduct, the council shall consider what, if any, action to take against them. Such action excludes disqualification or suspension from office.

15. PROPER OFFICER

- a. The Town Clerk or Deputy Town Clerk in the absence of the Town Clerk is the Proper Officer for any purpose in respect of which a Proper Officer is mentioned in any statute notwithstanding the provisions in subparagraphs i-iii below, nor should it be understood that there is any suspension of the Town Clerk's authority as the Proper Officer of the council at any time regardless.
- i. The Planning and Democratic Officer is a Proper Officer for any purpose in respect of which a Proper Officer is mentioned in any statute inasmuch as those purposes relate to the business and administration of the Planning and Transport Committee and excluding those powers and duties falling outwith these purposes except in the absence of the Town Clerk and Deputy Town Clerk.
- ii. The Amenities Manager is a Proper Officer for any purpose in respect of which a Proper Officer is mentioned in any statute inasmuch as those purposes relate to the business and administration of the Downs and Commons and Halls Committees and excluding those powers and duties falling outwith these purposes except in the absence of the Town Clerk and Deputy Town Clerk.
- iii. The Burials Clerk is a Proper Officer for any purpose in respect of which a Proper Officer is mentioned in any statute inasmuch as those purposes relate to the business and administration of the Town Cemetery and excluding those powers and duties falling outwith these purposes except in the absence of the Town Clerk and Deputy Town Clerk.
- iv. All nominated Proper Officers shall defer to the authority of the Town Clerk in any difference of statutory interpretation.
- v. "Absence" in this context should be understood to mean on annual leave, on sick leave, on suspension of employment, on time off in lieu (when it is the intention to be absent for the entire working day), when incapacitated for reasons of illness or injury, when discharging the duty to serve on a jury or other similar duty, or (in clear emergency situations only) when unavoidably unavailable during the course of normal working (such as participating in an employment tribunal hearing) with a low likelihood of availability within the necessary timeframe for action. It should not be understood to mean an artifact of flexible working, offsite working, home working, en route travel for work purposes, time off in lieu when it is intended to return to work for part of the working day, or lunch breaks.

b. The Proper Officer shall:

- i. at least three clear days before a meeting of the council, a committee or a sub-committee,
- serve on councillors by delivery or post at their residences or by email authenticated in such manner as the Proper Officer thinks fit, a signed summons confirming the time, place and the agenda (provided the councillor has consented to service by email), and
 - provide, in a conspicuous place, public notice of the time, place and agenda (provided that the public notice with agenda of an extraordinary meeting of the Council convened by councillors is signed by them).

See Standing Order 3(b) for the meaning of clear days for a meeting of a full council and Standing Order 3(c) for the meaning of clear days for a meeting of a committee;

- ii. subject to Standing Order 9, include on the agenda all motions in the order received unless a councillor has given written notice at least 5 days before the meeting confirming his withdrawal of a motion he previously submitted
- iii. convene a meeting of the council for the election of a new Chair of the council, occasioned by a casual vacancy in his office
- iv. facilitate inspection of the minute book by local government electors
- v. receive and retain copies of byelaws made by other local authorities
- vi. hold acceptance of office forms from councillors
- vii. hold a copy of every councillor's register of interests
- viii. assist with responding to requests made under Freedom of Information legislation and rights exercisable under Data Protection legislation, in accordance with the council's relevant policies and procedures
- ix. liaise, as appropriate, with the council's Data Protection Officer;
- x. receive and send general correspondence and notices on behalf of the council except where there is a resolution to the contrary
- xi. assist in the organisation, storage, security and destruction of, and access to, information held by the council in paper and electronic form subject to the requirements of Data Protection and Freedom of Information legislation and other legitimate requirements (for example, the Limitation Act 1980)
